

CURRENT DEPORTATIONS PROCEDURES

- DEPORTED AFTER DARK
- SEPARATED FROM FAMILY MEMBERS
- DEPORTED WITHOUT MONEY, CELL PHONES AND IDENTITY DOCUMENTS
- DEPORTED TO EXTREMELY DANGEROUS LOCATIONS

DEPORTATION PRACTICES ARE UNSAFE AND ENDANGER THE LIVES OF DEPORTEES

common DANGERS

-  KIDNAPPING
-  EXTORTION
-  MURDER
-  TRAFFICKING

TRAFFICKING RISKS

SEX-TRAFFICKING yields

$10
BILLION /YEAR
IN MEXICO

Migrant Women & Girls are Particularly Vulnerable

MIGRANT

KIDNAPPING & TRAFFICKING are HIGHLY PROFITABLE for ORGANIZED CRIME in MEXICO

48.55% of the Trafficking Victims are foreign nationals -mostly from Honduras, Guatemala and El Salvador- Mexican migrants are trafficked too.

HUMAN RIGHTS

RECOMMENDATIONS to make DEPORTATION PRACTICES more HUMANE

01 | END ALL NIGHT-TIME DEPORTATIONS

02 | END FAMILY SEPARATION DURING DEPORTATION

03 | DO NOT DEPORT INDIVIDUALS TO DANGEROUS LOCATIONS

04 | RETURN BELONGINGS DURING DEPORTATION

05 | PROVIDE PRIOR NOTIFICATION OF PEOPLE WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

06 | PROVIDE OPPORUNITIES FOR NGO INPUT

“Unsafe deportations and the careless disregard for the lives and security of migrants contribute to a humanitarian crisis on the side of our border. This reality is undermining our nation’s commitment to preserve and protect human rights globally”

Fr. Thomas Smolich, S.J.
President of the Jesuit Conference of the United States